On Taking Good Care
Of Yourself

J.N. Heiskell, publisher of the Arkansas Gazette in Little Rock, is a remarkable man. Not long ago his friends and associates feted him at his 98th birthday party. Mr. Heiskell accepted the salutes and then delivered the best line of the evening, "If I'd known I was going to live this long, I'd have taken better care of myself."

The Arkansas Gazette publisher got involved in the hottest battle of his career when he was around 85 or 86. That was in the famed Little Rock school desegregation crisis when President Eisenhower locked horns with Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus and finally dispatched federal troops to enforce a court order.

Mr. Heiskell's paper took the "law and order" position and Editor Harry Ashmore's editorials ripped Gov. Faubus and others who aroused the populace to defy the admission of a few black students to Little Rock's Central High School. Although people were quitting the paper in droves, the elderly publisher thought he was right and stuck to his guns. It has taken The Gazette a long time to overcome the setback in popularity it got in that experience, but the paper has proved as hardy as Mr. Heiskell himself.

One of his friends in the business is Oklahoma City publisher E.K. Gaylord, who is only five months younger than the Little Rock publisher. A major difference between the two is that Mr. Gaylord is a non-drinker and non-smoker. There's a story that a few years ago at Boca Raton, site of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association meeting, Mr. Gaylord went to pay his hotel bill and found bar charges of $58 or so. He hit the ceiling and demanded the particulars. The bar tabs had been charged to him all right, but they were initialed "JNH."

The two men enjoy a good joke on each other. And on the occasion of his 98th anniversary, Mr. Heiskell spoke of his friend with fondness: "He may reach 100," he said, "but he hasn't had half as much fun getting there as I have." — Charlotte (N.C.) Observer

Complete Turnabout on SS Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American supersonic transport program, given a new chance for life by a close House vote, may need $500 million to $1 billion to get going again, in the view of William M. Allen, chairman of the board of the Boeing Co.

Allen also told a Washington news conference today there would be a delay of about a year in the production program, over what had been planned initially.

Allen emphasized that he was very much in favor of continuation of the SST program, but said realities must be faced.

He said Boeing has had to terminate its subcontracts and disperse a large part of the team that has been working on the airplane.

Boeing has committed itself already as far as it can go, or really farther than would be justified, he said.

The Senate Democratic leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana, said he will not bring the bill containing the ST funds before the Senate until the draft extension debate is completed—probably sometime in June—unless an agreement can be reached "to handle it in a limited time."

"Our strategy will be to try and beat it, beat it up and down," said Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis. He declared to newsmen he will use any tactic under the Senate rules to kill the project—not ruling out talking it to death.

No Break in Threatened Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 12-hour talk session recessed early today at the Labor Department with no progress reported toward averting a nationwide rail shutdown threatened for next Monday by the signalmen's union.

No new meeting was immediately scheduled.

The AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen has threatened to order its 13,000 members off the job at 6 a.m. local time Monday, throwing up picket lines that would shut down the nation's intercity and commuter rail service.

The union has rejected a proposal, put forth by a presidential emergency panel and favored by the industry, for a 12 per cent pay increase over 42 months or about what other rail unions already have settled for.

Instead, the union is holding out for a 54 per cent increase over 36 months, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1970 when the old contract expired. Skilled signalmen now average $3.78 hourly.

One Thing About Lib Business: It Keeps Gal Out of Mischief

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that a girl campaigner for women's liberation gets tired of hearing:

"Wait until the right guy comes along. You'll be glad enough to be his willing slave."

"What good would it do to give you women everything you want? As soon as you got it you'd want something else."

"I suppose this nonsense has at least one virtue—it keeps you from getting involved in something worse."

"I know we should be totally independent of men, Myrtle, but could you get your boy friend to nail together some placards for our next demonstration? I never was any good with a hammer."

"As your mother, Myrtle, I think it's high time I pointed out to you that you should get out of that silly movement and get into a sensible institution. The institution is called marriage."

"Tell me again what are those freedoms we're fighting for? Whenever my fiance kisses me, I forget all about being oppressed."

"Even if we do win our campaign, men will still take off their hats when we step into an elevator, won't they? I hate it when they don't."

"As your employer, Myrtle, I have to admit that some of the men in this office are doing the same kind of work as you do are being paid more than you are. But aren't you willing to admit that while they are actually doing the work, you are spending at least half your time standing on a soapbox?"

"I'll believe women are sincere in wanting equal rights the day I take one of them to lunch and she grabs the tab before I can pick it up."

"Don't think of me as a traitor to our sex, Myrtle. But look at it this way—why should I join your movement when I am getting by pretty well with a movement all my own?"

Rolling Stone Hits a Hard Rock Trying for a Quiet Wedding

ST. TROPEZ, France (AP) — The bridegroom was dawdling over lunch, the bride was still at the hairdresser's. So Mick Jagger got married an hour late Wednesday after a heated argument with the mayor of this French Riviera resort town.

Jagger, the leader of the Rolling Stones rock group, telephoned the mayor and objected to the presence of about 100 photographers jamming into City Hall. He demanded privacy for his nuptials.

Mayor Marius Astezan said the building was a public place and he couldn't order anyone out.

Jagger insisted and finally the mayor told him: "I'm very busy. I have many things to do, and if you're not here in 10 minutes, I'm leaving and to hell with the wedding."

Jagger cooled down and he and his Nicaraguan bride, Bianca Perez Morena de Macias, pushed through a crowd of about 500.

Keith Richard, one of the Stones, and Francois Guglietto, who runs a local night club, were the bridegroom's witnesses. The bride's film actor Alain Delon's wife, Nathalie, and director Roger Vadim.

Jagger wore an almond green suit, a flowered green shirt and tennis shoes to match. His bride, the daughter of a Nicaraguan diplomat, was in off-white with a plunging neckline, midi skirt and big hat laced with garlands of roses.

The marriage was the first for both. Jagger is 28 and his bride 26.

The civil service was followed by a religious ceremony in the little 17th century Roman Catholic chapel of St. Anne. The parish priest, Father Lucien Baud, told newsmen: "I am happy because this ceremony is going to call the attention of the world, through the press, to my little chapel, which is worthy of this." He expressed regret that the Beatles hadn't come to sing for the wedding.

Three of the Beatles—Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr—did show up for the reception in the evening. About 100 attended.

Jagger kept his honeymoon plans a secret, but he has rented a yacht, and the couple was expected to make a Riviera cruise.

Delay Decision on Pullout

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has won a one-week delay in its uphill fight against any Senate move to cut U.S. troop strength in Europe.

Republican sources said they were unsure enough votes could be mustered Wednesday to defeat Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's proposal for a 50-per-cent cut at the end of 1971 in the 300,000-man U.S. force.

But the White House was reported standing firm against any of at least three GOP alternatives designed to blunt the Mansfield move, preferring to keep the troop situation as is.

The troop-reduction proposal, offered as an amendment to the draft-extension bill, apparently took the administration by surprise, even though Mansfield had long talked of such a move.

Early Wednesday, the White House passed the word to administration backers to use whatever means necessary to delay a vote. After a day of meetings and drafting, an agreement was reached delaying action until next Wednesday.

"The State Department is pretty frantic about this," said Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., a backer of Mansfield's proposal. "They apparently fear it will pass." He told reporters. "As a matter of fact, they called me for the first time since I was elected to the Senate in 1968 so I guess they are pretty frantic about the situation."

Union Must Pay Blacks It Barred

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has ordered a construction union to pay compensatory wages to blacks deprived of work because of the union's discriminatory practices.

U.S. Dist. Judge Marvin E. Frankel on Wednesday also held in contempt local 46, Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers Union, AFL-CIO, for failing to carry out a consent agreement to equalize job opportunities.

The judge ordered special hearings to fix the amount of back pay for an undetermined number of blacks "sufficient to make up the difference between what they earned and what they would have earned but for such unlawful discrimination."

One guideline suggested by Frankel was the amount of money earned by college students during the summer while Negroes were turned away. A union spokesman said the basic wage rate is $7.15 an hour.

The contempt charge grew out of an original civil rights charge against the union in 1968, claiming there were only four blacks among its 1,500 members.

"The pattern and practices of discrimination has continued," the judge added. He ordered the union to propose "fair and neutral" procedures within 20 days for assigning workers to construction jobs without racial discrimination.

Forecast Rise in Business Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a third of the year gone, the Nixon administration is still looking for solid evidence of a broad economic upsurge that will drive down high unemployment and slow inflation further.

Despite President Nixon's pledge that 1971 will be a good year, unemployment has hovered around the 6 per cent rate all year. Last month, the jobless rate edged up to 6.1 per cent.

Although consumer price increases slowed perceptibly in the first few months of the year, wholesale prices, which usually presage future cost-of-living increases, accelerated in April.

And, the Commerce Department reported Wednesday, the rise in national personal income slackened in April, supplying new evidence the economic pace is failing to match the administration's forecasts.

The personal income advance was $4.5 billion, down from the $6.2 billion increase recorded in February. The April rise was about the average monthly gain in 1970, a year in which the economy went through what Federal Reserve Chairman Arthur F. Burns has called a recession.

The evidence suggests, according to some economic analysts, that the expansion Nixon is seeking is not moving fast enough to reduce unemployment and inflation to acceptable levels.

The President has pledged to cut unemployment to 4.5 per cent and inflation, now running above 5 per cent, to 3 per cent by the middle of 1972.

To achieve these goals, he has promised to stimulate the economy with stepped-up federal spending and easier money policies.

There was an economic rebound from January through March but it can be traced to a catchup in business activity after settlement of the General Motors' strike.

But so far, the expansion has not been strong enough to make a dent in the unemployment rate, which Nixon's economic officials say should be falling below 5 per cent by the end of the year.

Montgomery Death Held Accidental

John Robert Graves, deputy prosecuting attorney, in a joint statement with Hempstead County Sheriff, Henry Sinyard, today advised The Hope Star that the death of Donn Montgomery on April 27, has been ruled accidental. Mr. Graves stated that an investigation by the Criminal Investigation Division of the Arkansas State Police, Hempstead County Sheriff's Office, the State Medical Examiner and the prosecuting attorney's office has revealed that Shirley Montgomery, wife of Donn Montgomery, accidentally shot and killed her husband with a .22 caliber derringer.

The finding of accidental death has been corroborated by the results of a lie detector test given by Arkansas State Police polygraph operator at Little Rock to Shirley Montgomery.

No charges have been filed, Mr. Graves said, and the case is officially closed.

Cut in Rat Control Plan Is Canceled

By JAMES PHILLIPS

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yielding to congressional criticism, the Nixon administration has backed down on its plan to crop the nation's rat control program.

Ron Coene, assistant director of the Bureau of Community Environmental Management, said the administration agreed Wednesday to restore the $15 million program for fiscal 1972.

Asked if congressional pressure forced the reversal, a high official in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said "That would be a proper conclusion."

"The administration line is that they have re-evaluated it," added the official, who asked not to be named. "They have decided there is justification for the program."

The program was quietly dropped without explanation in the initial HEW budget request. Freshman Rep. Paul S. Sarbanes, D-Md., called the decision unconscionable.

Postal Hike Takes Effect Sunday, 16th

Postmaster A. D. Brannan said today that increases in most postage rates will take effect Sunday, May 16, as the new United States Postal Service begins its task of achieving self-sufficiency as required by the Postal Reorganization Act.

Mr. Brannan noted that general postage rates have not been increased since 1967 when Congress passed what was to become its final legislative act in this respect.

He pointed out that, earlier, requests for rate increases were proposed to Congress in 1969 by both President Johnson and President Nixon. In addition, President Nixon proposed an increase in 1970, although none of the proposed increases was acted upon by Congress.

Mr. Brannan explained that the new increases—authorized on a temporary basis until the newly created Postal Rate Commission can make recommendations to the Governors of the Postal Service on permanent charges—will raise first-class letter rates from 6 to 8 cents an ounce, and airmail letter rates from 10 to 11 cents an ounce. Post cards will go from 5 to 6 cents each and airmail post cards will go from 8 to 9 cents each.

The increases will be borne more by business than by individuals, the postmaster pointed out, since about 75 per cent of first class and airmail is from commercial mailers.

In addition to increases in first-class rates, second and third class rates will also go up on May 16. However, the full increases proposed by the Postal Service will not be put into effect on a temporary basis, in second and third class, since the postal reform legislation contemplates that such increases be phased over 5 years—or ten years for nonprofit organizations—provided Congress appropriates the necessary funds to ease the transition to full rates.

Because of the phasing provision, the increase to become effective May 16 for second and third-class will generally be only one-fifth of the total increase which has been proposed by the Postal Service.

No changes are made in the rates for parcel post, which is the principal component of fourth-class mail. However, initial increases will be made in the "book rate" which is classified as fourth class.

The new temporary rates also make changes in other postage rate categories and special service fees, such as special delivery and registered mail.

The Postal Service advised the public in February that it intended to make the temporary increases if the Postal Rate Commission did not make the recommended decision within 90 days of the request by the Postal Service.

Recently the Rate Commission confirmed that it will not be able to make a decision within the 90 days, and Sunday, May 16, was selected as the date on which the rates would become effective.

When the domestic change goes into effect, there will be conforming increases in letter rates to Canada and Mexico.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional overseers of the Postal Service say they will wait for results before passing judgment on the sweeping reorganization of the mails announced by Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount.

The Postal Service chief said Wednesday the current 15 regional mail centers will be cut to five, which will have more centralized authority, and there will be a manpower reduction.

Though his announcement said nothing of how many employees would be affected, congressional sources said 3,500 older, white collar workers would be encouraged to retire.

Blount did say none of 640,000 postal workers protected by unions would be affected. That means the local mailman won't change.

New Oil Line Building for N. Vietnam

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Vietnamese are expanding a vital gasoline pipeline feeding their supply of truck traffic through Laos, military sources report.

The Communists are said to be building a new pipeline leg from the port city of Quang Khe toward the Bankarai Pass opening into the Ho Chi Minh Trail complex.

U.S. officials say the new section, paralleling Route 137, will give the North Vietnamese a third main outlet for pumping truck fuel south. The other two go through the Mu Gia Pass and across the Laotian border northwest of the demilitarized zone.

So far, sources say, the new leg extends only about seven miles south of Quang Khe, one of the key coastal points where small tankers tie directly into the pipeline and storage tanks ashore.

The segment is expected to be finished in time for the next big Communist supply push in the fall.

The pipeline expansion is one of a number of signs North Vietnam is making strong efforts to keep open, and improve, its remaining supply channel to Communist forces in South Vietnam and Cambodia. U.S. intelligence estimates as many as 70,000 North Vietnamese troops are staying in the Laotian panhandle during the rainy season, now setting in.

This is an increase of about 15,000 over last rainy season, the first in which the North Vietnamese kept a major logistics force in the panhandle to repair the roads.

Sources said a considerable part of the manpower increase includes weapons crews manning strengthened anti-aircraft defenses along the road network.

U.S. authorities said South Vietnamese troops severed the pipeline at various places during the six-week invasion against the Ho Chi Minh trail last February and March.

The pipe is designed for easy and quick repair. Each 19-foot section, if ruptured, can be disconnected and replaced in a few minutes, U.S. experts say.

Nixon Family Aid Plan Revived

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's family-assistance plan for reforming the welfare system, which fell by the congressional wayside last year, has been given a new, running start.

The House Ways and Means Committee has included essentials of the plan—Substantial federal takeover of welfare and a $2,400 income assurance for a family of four—in a mammoth Social Security-welfare reform measure.

Approved Wednesday except for a final review of language and formal vote, the measure is expected to go to the House for consideration early next month.

When fully effective in 1973 the big bill would pump an additional $6 billion to Social Security pensioners and welfare recipients.

The Social Security portion would require a sizable hike in payroll tax collected from employees and employers, though not as stiff as the committee tentatively approved earlier.

Through increases both in the wage base and the tax rate, the bill would raise the maximum payment by an employee and his employer from this year's $405.60 each to $550.80 in 1972. The maximum increase would apply only to those earning $10,200 or more.

Committee spokesmen said the states could expect to save $1.5 billion to $2 billion of the money now expended on welfare.

The fiscal relief would fall unevenly on the states, depending principally on how generous their present welfare programs are.

But a last-minute tailoring assured the dozen large, heavily paying states protection against increases in their expenditures above the 1971 level caused by addition of the working poor and natural growth of the relief rolls.

S. Vietnam Beats Off 2 Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces repulsed the first two major counterattacks in their month-long A Shau Valley campaign, claimed 200 North Vietnamese killed with the help of U.S. aircraft, and smashed a regimental-size base camp and arms factory.

Ninety South Vietnamese marines were reported killed or wounded in the two enemy attacks.

Some 400 North Vietnamese made the first assault at 4 a.m. Wednesday on the night camp of a 500-man South Vietnamese marine battalion in mountainous terrain on the eastern border of the 30-mile-long valley.

Field reports said six marines were killed and 48 were wounded.

Caution Is Advised on Cancer Drive

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — The time has come for an all-out campaign to cure cancer, say government leaders.

President Nixon proposes just such an effort, and he spelled out objectives and some approaches on Tuesday. They are very similar to those in a bill already introduced in the Senate by Sens. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., and Jacob Javits, R-N.Y.

Cancer specialists applaud the purpose. But they sound some notes of caution.

Curing cancer cannot be accomplished quickly with the kind of powerful concentration of money and talent that produced the A-bomb, or which sent men safely to the moon and back.

Those were marvelous achievements, but mostly engineering ventures, successfully using basic knowledge that was already available. Einstein and others had discovered what might happen when an atom

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Debbie Shelton is enjoying her final two weeks as, officially, the most beautiful girl in the United States. She will be the second beautiful girl in the universe for a while longer.

Debbie, the pride of Norfolk, Va., a brunette beauty of 22, will turn over her rhinestone crown and sceptre to her successor, Miss USA 1971 during the televised finals of the pageant on Saturday, May 22.

But she is looking forward to the end of her reign. Less than a month after her enforced retirement, she will marry a young Cuban exile—Vici Castro—no relation to Fidel—and settle down to life as the wife of a law student.

"It's been a pretty exciting year, and I think I've learned an awful lot," said Miss USA 1970. "I've traveled all over—the United States, Japan, Brazil, Spain, Portugal and to Puerto Rico a couple of times. I think the experience has matured me and made me aware of the world. I know I read newspapers a lot more these days. I've met a lot of people. I've learned about being interviewed—the hard way."

The only child of a Norfolk dentist, Debbie entered the local Miss Virginia contest as a defiant gesture after an argument with her then-boy friend. She won, went on to win the Miss USA title and then was Melissa Mohon, senior, is the fourth-quarter recipient of the Joe Amour Service Award at Hope High School.

After being selected by a committee of students and teachers, Melissa was presented with a plaque and certificate by Principal Bobby Whitmarsh May 3.

She has served as Student Council secretary, associate Hi-Lights editor, National Honor Society secretary, Nike Club reporter, and Beta Club treasurer.

Earlier in the year she was runner-up in the Miss Universe contest. She met her fiancé during the Miami finals of the Miss USA contest last year.

"The beginning and the end of my year are tiring," she said. "I was exhausted after the Miss USA contest and tensions will build up this year, too."

She was modeling and doing TV commercials before becoming a beauty queen, so public appearances have not been nerve-racking. But she is pretty wary about interviews. The pageant people warned her to stop using a favorite word, "relationship" lest it be misunderstood. And there were some stormy reactions after interviews in which she expressed frank opinions on women's lib ("stupid and silly"); hot pants ("I like them") and the war in Vietnam ("do something and get out or just get out period.")

"I really don't see why my opinions as Miss USA are any more important than they were before," she said.

Debbie won $5,000 in cash, a $5,000 white mink coat and made another $5,000 for personal appearances during this year under contract to the promoters of the beauty contest. Won't she find life after May be a big let-down? "Heavens, no," said Miss USA, pulling her white mink close. "getting married is the most exciting thing that has ever happened to me. I can't wait to be a housewife."

Presbyterian to Dedicate New Piano

First Presbyterian Church of Hope has just placed a new Baldwin grand piano in the sanctuary and there will be special services this Sunday, May 16, to dedicate it to church use.

For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities: Transgressing, and denying the Lord, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart lying words.—Isaiah 59: 12, 13.

Local Tourney Fights

Moved Back Day by Rain

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Since both district 7 baseball games were rained out Wednesday the remainder of the tournament will be moved back one day.

Now, the finals will be held on Saturday, with Texarkana and Hope favored to meet in that one. Although only one team can be the district champs, the runnerup will also go to the state tournament in Pine Bluff next week.

Today's games, if the weather permits, will probably be switched so that Texarkana and Blevins will play first and Nashville will meet Cale in the second game.

Texarkana will be trying to get back home in time for a school banquet is the reason for the probable switch.

Hope's next game will now be moved back to Friday when the Bobcats will tangle with the winner of the Cale-Nashville game at 7:30.

SMU Wins All-Sports Title

DALLAS (AP)—The 10th annual Dallas Times Herald unofficial All-Sports championship of the Southwest Conference for the 1970-71 school year goes to Southern Methodist by a half point over Texas.

Texas didn't compete in the golf championship this year and with the Longhorns' strong team would have had little trouble finishing with enough points to take the All-Sports crown.

The Times Herald system, as compiled by Louis Cox, showed SMU with 46 points to 45½ for Texas. Eight points are given for first place in the SWC's eight official sports. One less point is given for each succeeding place in the standings.

SMU, winner of the cross-country and swimming championships, finished in the first division in all other sports except baseball. A climb over Rice for sixth place in baseball in the season's final series and a fourth place finish in the track championship clinched the first All-Sports title for SMU.

Texas also won two championships, football and baseball, and finished in the first division of all other sports in which it participated except basketball. Rice also won two championships, track and tennis, but finished fifth in the All-Sports standings. TCU won the basketball championship and Texas Tech won in golf.

Texas Tech finished third for the third straight year in the All-Sports standings with 37 points this school year. Texas A&M was fourth with 36 points, while Rice had 33½, TCU 32, Arkansas 28 and Baylor 23.

Homers Put Cubs Up Over Phillies

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The burning question in Philadelphia is whether the Phillies were done in Wednesday night by three pitches that hit Chicago Cub bats or one pitch that didn't.

There may be different opinions on the matter. As far as the Cubs are concerned, home runs by Ron Santo, Johnny Callison and Billy Williams that accounted for six runs in a 9-4 triumph were the keys to victory.

The Phillies, however, contend that a ruling by umpire Tom Gorman that Jim Hickman checked his swing and did not foul tip a 3-2 pitch was as crucial as any of the homers.

Elsewhere in the National League, Houston edged the New York Mets 5-4, San Diego nipped Pittsburgh 2-1, San Francisco trounced Cincinnati 7-2 and Los Angeles blanked Atlanta 5-0. St. Louis and Montreal were rained out.

American League scores: Minnesota 1, Boston 0; Oakland 8, Cleveland 1; Baltimore 6, Kansas City 0; Detroit 8, California 1; New York Yankees 3, Milwaukee 0 and the Chicago White Sox took two from Washington 5-0 and 9-5.

The Cubs and Phillies were scoreless in the fourth inning when the fireworks—physical and verbal—started. Williams singled with one out and then came the disputed fourth ball to Hickman. Joe Pepitone popped up for what the Phils thought should have been the third out, but Santo belted a three-run homer and Callison followed with a solo shot.

In the seventh, Glenn Beckert doubled three runs across and Williams homered. Santo, Callison and Williams also homered the previous night. Tony Taylor and Joe Lis connected for the Phils.

When Gorman called ball four on Hickman, with Williams running, catcher Mike Ryan exploded and he, pitcher Jim Bunning and manager Frank Lucchesi all screamed at the ump.

"He foul tipped it," roared Ryan. "I didn't hear anything," said Gorman as he waved Hickman to first base.

Houston unloaded on Mets' ace Tom Seaver for four runs in the sixth and the Astros hung on. Singles by Roger Metzger, Joe Morgan and Denis Menke snapped a scoreless duel between Seaver and Don Wilson. Rader, with only one hit in his previous 32 trips, then lashed a three-run homer, his first of the year.

A two-base error by Cleon Jones and Morgan's single accounted for the decisive run in the seventh. Trailing 5-0, the Mets then battled back on seventh-inning homers by Ed Kranepool and Ken Boswell and got two more in the eighth before Fred Gladding shut the door.

They remained one game in front of Pittsburgh in the NL East, however, when San Diego shaded the Pirates on Dave Roberts' four-hit pitching and Ollie Brown's tie-breaking single.

Roberts hulred hitless ball over the final six innings after singles by Clarence Gaston, Nate Colbert and Brown snapped a 1-all tie in the third.

The Giants erupted for six runs in the second inning and went on to whip the floundering Reds as Ron Bryant spaced eight hits.

Loser Don Gullett walked Dick Dietz and Alan Gallagher around George Foster's single to set things up. Tito Fuentes singled the first run across and Hal Lanier doubled for two more. The others crossed on an error by Tony Perez, Frank Johnson's grounder and Ken Henderson's sacrifice fly. Johnny Bench homered for the losers.

backed by Ike Brown's three-run homer and sacrifice fly.

Tom Bradley triggered the White Sox' sweep over the reeling Senators by tossing a five-hitter in the opener for his fourth victory—and second shutout—in five decisions.

Rick Reichardt, who had a run-scoring single in the first game as the White Sox ended a five game tailspin, paced a Chicago comeback in the nighttime with three singles, a double and his fourth homer of the season. The Senators have lost four in a row and 10 of their last 11 games.

Ken Venturi Bounces Back to Compete in Houston Tournament

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Ken Venturi has bounced out of golf's graveyard again with a new, re-made right hand and a soul full of fresh hopes.

"I was sure my career was dead—that I'd never play another round of competitive golf," the tall, graying ex-U.S. Open champion from San Francisco said today as he nervously awaited his tee-off in the M.P.H. curve.

Donnie Allison, 31, and younger of the two driving brothers from nearby Hueytown, put the Wood Brothers Mercury in the pole position Wednesday at 185.869 miles per hour.

That much was expected, for the candy apple red and white car had gained the No. 1 starting spot in every race it had entered this season. First with A.J. Foyt at the wheel and later with Allison.

Bobby Allison, 33, who took over the Holman and Moody Mercury vacated only a week ago by David Pearson, had been conceded the other front row berth, and he made a torrid run for it—185.358 m.p.h.

Isaac, however, wheeled his Dodge around the 2.66 mile trioval at 185.721 to put a damper on what would have been the first brother front act in auto racing history. A late entry, he did it despite limited practice.

But they should have expected Isaac was laying in wait. The 33-year-old Catawba, N.C., driver, who won $200,000 and the NASCAR Grand National driving title last year, holds the world's closed course speed record—201.104 m.p.h. set on this track last November.

The next year, 1965, at St.

Louis, Venturi's hands became slabs of cold, unresponsive flesh. A circulatory ailment made it almost impossible for him to hold a club, much less swing it. He failed to make the cut.

"I underwent an operation on both my hands," he said. "At first, the operation appeared a success. I won the San Francisco Open in 1966. Then everything collapsed. My left hand responded okay, but my right developed complications.

"The scar tissue got down among the tendons. My hand was as if it was frozen. My wrist got so it was not much bigger than a brown handle.

"I thought certainly I was through. I tried in 1967, again in 1968 and 1969. It was no use. Last year I tried to play at Akron."

"Then on Aug. 24, I underwent another operation. My right wrist was cut open. It lay open for more than three hours while doctors cleaned out the scar tissue and restored the tendons.

"You might say they gave me a new hand. Then I started lifting weights, taking exercises to strengthen my hand and wrists. See, my wrist is normal size again.

"I have my strength back. I can swing a club again. Not well, but I can swing. So I'm giving it another try. I'm not through yet. I'm playing and praying."

Charles Frazier to Arkansas State Meet

CHARLES FRAZIER

Charles Frazier, Hope's best broad jumper, placed very high in the district meet and earned a chance to travel to the state meet.

Frazier jumped 21 feet 4 1/2 inches, also breaking his own school record for the third time.

Who's to Give Frazier a Fight?

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Heavyweight Boxing Champion Joe Frazier is looking for a fight.

And according to Yank Durham, his manager, "I'll try to get it for him. But I still would like to see him retire. I tried to persuade him but he's set on fighting again."

Who to fight? "George Foreman would make it worth that kind of money," Frazier says. "He's got no place else to go." If he fights Clay (Muhammad Ali), he'd get cut to ribbons and it wouldn't mean as much as fighting me.

"Jerry Quarry would be the right kind of opponent," Frazier added. "He can fight, he's got a lotta heart, he proved it when I beat him two years ago."

Frazier leaves Friday with his eight-piece rock band, The Knockouts, for a tour of 29 cities in 11 European countries. The first stop is Amsterdam Saturday night.

"I can't stay put anywhere," Frazier said. "I can't just lay back and rest. That's why I asked Yank to get me a fight this year."

Frazier's final European stop is June 25 and he plans to return to Philadelphia and the business of training soon afterward, he said.

Motts Takes Over Bulls Contract

CHICAGO (AP) — Now that Dick Motta has decided to accept what the Chicago Bulls say is the finest contract in professional sports, the National Basketball Association's coach of the year is "looking forward to the day when I can prove I'm worth it."

Motta, 39, ended speculation Wednesday that he would accept a lucrative offer from the Texas Chaparrals of the American Basketball Association when he signed a five-year pact with the Bulls.

There were reports that the Dallas team offered Motta $60,000 a year in salary but the terms of his agreement with the Bulls were not disclosed.

Motta said, "Money was not the deciding factor. Texas made one offer and the Bulls made one offer and that was it. I didn't want to play games."

He added, "I don't think my job in Chicago is done."

Offensive of Hogs Looks Good

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas offensive unit continued to look impressive Wednesday during a 30-minute scrimmage that ended a two-hour workout.

Quarterback Joe Ferguson completed two of three passes for 70 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown pass to split end Mike Reppond.

Second-team quarterback Walter Nelson completed three of four passes for 63 yards, including a 38-yard bomb to Reppond that set up a two-yard touchdown run by sophomore back Dicky Morton.

Morton had 34 yards on four carries. The other second team running back, sophomore Skipper DeBoarde, had 23 yards on four carries, including a four-yard touchdown run.

The other touchdown of the day was on a one-yard run by fullback Scott Binnion.

The Razorbacks will hold a similar workout today and will conclude spring practice with a red-white game Saturday at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock.

Utah Can Take Title Saturday

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Good defense and good health, in that order, can give the Utah Stars the American Basketball Association championship, says Utah coach Bill Sharman.

Utah, leading the best-of-seven championship series 3-2 after a 137-127 victory Wednesday night, can wrap up the title before a national television audience Saturday, in Louisville.

A seventh game, if necessary, will be played Tuesday night in Salt Lake City, where Kentucky has yet to win this season.

Dan Issel of Kentucky continued his high scoring Wednesday night, getting 27 points in the first half and 33 for the game. But he got offensive help only from Cincy Powell, who scored 22.

Sharman attributed this to a defensive effort that held Kentucky guards Louie Dampier and Darel Carrier to 10 points between them in the first half and 21 for the game. Carrier's seven points was his lowest output of the series.

In Kentucky's overtime victory last Saturday, the two combined for 60 points.

Two Utah starters, Merv Jackson and Red Robbins, were ineffective in the two Kentucky victories—Robbins because of stomach flu and Jackson because of a sore left knee.

But Wednesday night, Jackson defended Carrier to the bench and scored 20 points, 13 in the second quarter. Robbins scored 16 and grabbed eight rebounds.

Robbins and Jackson played 31 minutes apiece, Jackson limping on a heavily taped left leg.

Utah center Zelmo Beaty pulled down 22 rebounds and scored 32 points to lead the Stars in both departments. Glen Combs and Ron Boone added 25 and 24, respectively, for the Stars.

Beaty's second-half scoring, which came with Issel on the bench much of the time, kept the contest out of Kentucky's reach.

Utah never trailed, running up leads of 34-25 after the first quarter, 75-56 at halftime, and 104-88 after the third period. They led by 20 at one point in the second half before Kenucky pulled to 132-125 on Powell's three-pointer with 35 seconds left.

Powell left in the third period with a bloody eyebrow and elbow after a fight with E. J. and Willie Wise of the Stars. He returned in the fourth period wearing bandaids.

The teams were nearly even in all categories except three-point shots. Kentucky's specialty. Utah hit five of eight compared with three of 11 for Kentucky.

Kentucky suffered a defensive lapse in the first half, when Utah hit 53 per cent. Colonels' Coach Frank Ramsey said.

"We must have given away 25 points—just gave'em away," Ramsey said.

Alaska has not adopted its own state motto.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The British liner Titanic sank, with a loss of about 1,500 lives, after striking an iceberg on her maiden voyage in April, 1912. The World Almanac recalls that this tragedy aroused great public anger which led to measures promoting safety at sea, such as iceberg patrols and an increase in the number of properly equipped lifeboats aboard ships.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Italy brought a new team to play for them in the 1970 World's championship. They were nervous at the start. When they played us in the third round they were ready. They proceeded to take an early lead when Riccardo Tersch and Enrico Cesati bid to six no-trump.

Tersch's two clubs was rather like JACOBY MODERN in that it was artificial and forcing. North's response was positive and showed a spade suit while Tersch's two no-trump rebid showed specifically 20 or 21 points and a no-trump type hand. Cesati added 13 to 20 and bid six no-trump.

All Tersch had to do was knock out the ace of clubs and cash his 12 good tricks to score 1,440 points for Italy. At the other table Bobby Goldman opened one diamond. His hand wasn't quite strong enough to warrant a two-club call in their methods. From then on the bidding went forward nicely, but unfortunately the club suit was mentioned and they found their 4-4 fit to land at six clubs.

We can't fault them for this. Normally there is a decided advantage in finding a sound 4-4 fit. This time it didn't work out. There was no way for Billy Eisenberg to avoid losing two trump tricks when West showed up with all seven trumps. Italy took a 17 IMP lead.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Don't Be Ashamed Of Nervousness

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I am 16 years old and have a small question. My hands shake constantly from nervousness. I am always arguing with my friends and family. There is a constant push for better marks from my parents because I go to a private school. I am becoming concerned about my shaking hands. I don't want to see a doctor because my parents would have to know. Is there a product that works to stop constant nervousness?

Dear Reader—Nervousness is a symptom. You have suggested some causes for your problem, particularly the pressure to make good marks in school. There is no way that you can be properly treated without professional help, which means you will have to see a doctor.

Perhaps the first step in resolving your difficulty would be to discuss it frankly with your parents. Problems in communications between people who live together or have close emotional ties are a frequent cause of nervousness. The best treatment for this is talking out the problem.

Certain habits, like excessive use of coffee, cola drinks and cigarettes, increase nervousness. Some diseases do, also, like an overactive thyroid gland which can cause shaking of the hands as well. Individuals with overactive thyroid glands are usually excessive-

"TALK" NOT DINNER MUSIC TO HIM

Dear Helen: Later my dad has made a rule about no talking at the dinner table. Mom doesn't like this, but what he says goes.

Dad says it is not proper to talk while we eat. We think it's good to discuss pleasant things and what we've done during the day. We hardly get to see each other any other time. There are four kids in the family.

Who's right? —LOSING MY APPETITE

Dear LMA: Either your father means "Don't talk with your mouth full" or "No fighting!", or else he's a TV addict.

If he doesn't know the best kind of dinner music is pleasant conversation, then your mother should teach him! —H.

Dear Helen: My mother says I'm becoming a foot fanatic. You see, I wear a size 11, very narrow, and that's monstrous.

Whenever I stand next to someone, I can see the immense difference between their feet and mine. I have to walk down stairs sideways to fit on the steps.

At the beginning of school, a teacher asked us to write down one thing that made us unique from others and I put down "Big feet."

It took me a long time to see that I've been blind. I either took for granted or ignored the love Mom gave me until I almost didn't have her any more.

Sure, parents can be tough, but it would be even tougher without them. —GLAD

5th Hockey Title Game Tonight

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Black Hawks, champions of the National Hockey League's West Division, have not lost three straight games all season—a rather enviable record of which they are justifiably proud.

But to keep it intact, they'll have to turn off Montreal's sizzling Canadiens in tonight's fifth game of the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup championship series.

The Hawks got off in the driver's seat in this series, winning the first two games at home and jumping off to a 2-0 lead in Game Three. But suddenly the Canadiens came alive, sweeping from behind to win that third game and then completely dominating the fourth contest to square the best-of-seven series.

Montreal's spark was lit by tall Pete Mahovich, who scored a tower of strength for Les Habitants. He, and his older brother, Frank, have become heroes to the Montreal fans, who've been more accustomed to cheering Frenchmen like Richard, Geoffrion and Beliveau in the past.

Frank Mahovich, with 13 playoff goals so far, has tied the single season Cup record set last year by Boston's Phil Esposito. He is just three points short of Esposito's 27 playoff points, also a record.

But kid brother Pete has caused Chicago plenty of aggravation too. Three of his nine playoff goals have come in this series and his aggressive play has led to other Montreal scores as well.

Take, for example, a first period Chicago power play with the Canadiens leading 2-1 in Game Four. Pete, out killing the penalty, stole the puck and forced Chicago defenseman Rick Foley into a holding penalty that wiped out the Hawks' manpower edge. Moments later, Montreal's Guy Lapointe scored.

Later, Peter and Frank both assisted on Yvan Cournoyer's second goal of the game. And both were involved in late-game scuffles, Pete with little Lou Angotti and Frank with big Jerry Korab.

The aggressions exploded in several late-game bouts in Game Four which resulted in six major penalties, five misconducts. But Billy Reay, Chicago's coach, paid little mind to the fights.

"I didn't see any rough stuff," said Reay, "just a lot of holding." Dennis Hull, who finally beat Ken Dryden after the rookie Montreal goalie made several great saves, was asked if Montreal's two victories at home might provide extra momentum for them in Chicago.

"Are you kidding?" replied Hull. "It's tied 2-2 now."

Manush, Hall of Famer, Dies at 69

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Henry A. (Heinie) Manush, 69, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame since 1964, died in Sarasota Wednesday after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Manush compiled a .330 batting average over a 17-year major league career. He was winner of the American League batting championship with a .378 average in 1926 with the Washington Senators.

Manush played first for the Detroit Tigers and later with the St. Louis Browns, Senators, Boston Red Sox, Brooklyn Dodgers and Pittsburgh Pirates.

World Tennis for Houston Nov. 18-21

HOUSTON (AP) — Quarter-finals and semi-finals of the $100,000 World Championship of Tennis will be held in Houston Nov. 18-21. Hugh Sweeney, promoter of the Houston matches, said Wednesday a schedule change placed the matches here.

Houston originally had been scheduled as the site of the 20th and final tournament of the year in the series to qualify eight professionals in the quarter-finals.

Sweeney said the change resulted from a decision by World Championship Tennis to play the 20th and final tournament Nov. 7-14 in Milan, Italy.

The finals are scheduled Nov. 26 in New York's Madison Square Garden.

The Houston matches will be played in the new 10,000 seat Hofheinz Pavilion at the University of Houston.

Travelers Rained Out at L.R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers' series opener with the Albuquerque Dodgers was rained out Wednesday night.

The two teams will make up the game tonight with a double-header at Ray Winder Field in Little Rock.

In other Dixie Association action Wednesday night, Dallas-Fort Worth edged Birmingham 5-4, Memphis tripped San Antonio 6-4 and Savannah defeated Jacksonville 6-3. Montgomery at Columbus, Amarillo at Shreveport and Asheville at Charlotte were also postponed because of rain.

Liquor Has Mental Thing Going for Him

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP) — Villanova University's Marty Liquori says only a "mental thing" will enable him to beat Jim Ryun in Sunday's "Super Mile," feature event of the Martin Luther King Freedom Games in Philadelphia.

The race between Ryun, the world record holder, and Liquori, one of the few runners ever to outrun the famed Kansan, has been billed as the most decisive competition at the distance since 1954 when England's Roger Bannister became the mile king by beating John Landy of Australia. Meet officials are hopeful, too, that Kip Keino, who took the 1,500-meter gold medal away from Ryun and Liquori in the 1968 Olympics, will enter and make it a three-man super event.

"I expect to run my best race ever," said Liquori Wednesday after returning from a light job. "I haven't come within five seconds of his (Ryun's) best time and he is physically stronger. If I am to beat him it will have to be a mental thing."

It will be the 11th confrontation between the 21-year-old Villanova finance student and Ryun, who at 24 is a professional photographer. In the previous 10-mile or 1,500-meter races, Ryun has won eight and Liquori the other two. Liquori's best time in the mile is 3:57.2, while Ryun's world record, classified by some track experts as phenomenal, is 3:51.1.

Derby Win Jockey Home From S.A.

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Back from a tumultuous welcome in Venezuela, where he received a congressional medal and met with the president, jockey Gustavo Avila is seeking new racing honors in the United States. Looming directly ahead, of course, is Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness, and Avila is confident Canonero II can win the second of the Triple Crown races as he did the Kentucky Derby.

Then, after some riding in New York including the Belmont Stakes, Avila likely will return to Venezuela. But he'd prefer pursuing his career in the U.S.

"I would like to," the 31-year-old jockey said through an interpreter, "but no one has asked me. I guess I should learn English first."

Canonero II, rated no better than fourth in the probable Preakness odds despite his Derby victory, was to be officially entered today in the 1 3/16 mile classic.

Jim French and Bold Reason, the runner-up and third-place finisher in the Derby, got the jump on the rest of the field earlier in the week when their trainers telephoned Pimlico from New York to make it official.

Nine more entries, at $1,000 each, were expected today. It will cost another $1,000 each to start on Saturday.

Avila galloped Canonero II on

Hits 180 MPH 1st Time at Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — "Smooth" is the word for Mark Donohue, who unofficially turned the first 180-mile-an-hour lap at the 61-year-old Indianapolis Motor Speedway Wednesday.

The one-word description came from Peter DePaolo, 1925 winner of the Speedway's annual 500-mile race at an average speed of 101.13.

"This is just fantastic," said DePaolo, 73, of Dearborn, Mich., who made his annual appearance to watch practice for the million-dollar race May 29.

Speedway veterans didn't know whether to give most of the credit to the 34-year-old graduate engineer driver, to the master minding of car owner Roger Penske, or to the new Mark 16 McLaren-Offenhauser.

Donohue, running at an undesirably low 54 degrees in a brisk northwest wind, was caught at 50 seconds flat for the 2 1/2-mile oval on a half-dozen stop watches. Some in different locations made it 50.12 or 179.6.

The Speedway's electric eye timer was in use in drivers' tests for rookies. One of them, Dee Jones, 38, of Phoenix, Ariz., crashed near the pit entrance a short time later after completing the 150 mile-an-hour phase of the test. He was not hurt. The car may be repairable.

Penske, himself a veteran road racer from Philadelphia, said he told his Media, Pa., driver not to go out and deliberately try for the first 180 lap. "I told Donohue that was the worst way, to just drive hard—as he always does—but not to get carried away."

The boyish-faced Donohue pulled into the pits from the sizzling lap and said calmly, "The car felt great."

"That's what he always says," Penske said.

Penske, former Sports Car Club of America champion, helped McLaren Cars of England design the record-smashing Mark 16.

He declined to pick any one feature of the design that made the car 5 to 15 m.p.h. faster than anything else at the Speedway. He said there were several innovations, including radiator placement that moved the center of gravity, airfoils on the nose and over the engine, "terrific new tires," and some engineering on the four-cylinder Offy engine.

Whatever it was, it sent former winners A. J. Foyt Jr., Al Unser and Mario Andretti back to their garages for some "catch up" tinkering with their cars.

Roche Picks N.Y. Over Phoenix

WEST HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — John Roche, who wanted to play in New York rather than Phoenix or Kentucky, has agreed to do so, signing a four-year, no-cut contract estimated at $400,000 with the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association.

Wednesday's signing ended a five-year pursuit by Nets' Coach Lou Carnesecca, who tried to get Roche to play for St. John's University when Carnesecca coached the Redmen.

Roche, however, went to South Carolina instead, scored 1910 career points for an SC record, was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year as a sophomore and junior and, as a senior this past season, averaged 21.6 points.

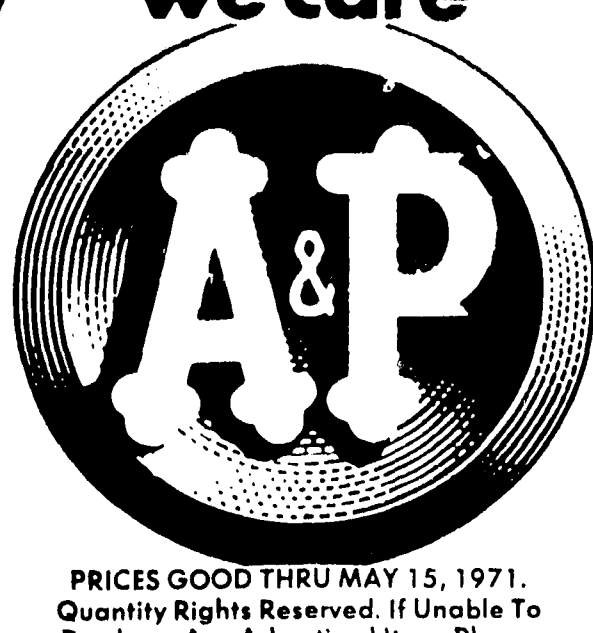

The 6-foot-2 New York City native was drafted by the Kentucky Colonels of the ABA and was the No. 1 pick by the Phoenix Suns of the rival National Basketball Association.

Carnesecca said Roche's attorney, Arthur Morse, "contacted me and that was the first inkling that Roche desired to play for us."

"We didn't own the rights to him so first I had to talk to Kentucky President Mike Storen. We ended up settling for a cash payment, which was by no means nominal," Carnesecca said.

Tuesday and worked the colt a lackluster five furlongs in 1:06 Wednesday. Trainer Juan Arias said he was satisfied, however, describing it as "half work, half run."

Britain Near Common Mart Membership

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Britain and the six Common Market nations made a major breakthrough early today in their negotiations on the British application for membership in the European Economic Community.

Agreement was reached on three important issues, including a formula to reckon Britain's payments into the joint budget in its first years of membership. The budget now amounts to about $4 billion a year, more than 90 per cent spent on supporting Western Europe's dwindling farm population.

Still to be resolved are the questions of New Zealand's dairy exports and the future of the pound sterling. The negotiators were optimistic that these can be resolved at the next session June 7 in Luxembourg.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Schumann said the session produced a major breakthrough and negotiations could be completed by the end of June. Hans de Koster of the Dutch Foreign Ministry predicted that negotiations to admit Denmark and Ireland could be completed at the same time, but he said the future of Norway's application was less certain because its proposal on fisheries was unacceptable.

Sigismund von Graun, the West German secretary of state for foreign affairs, said Britain is now ripe to join the Common Market.

At the all-night meeting the negotiators also agreed on favored treatment for the big sugar reducers of the British Commonwealth, mainly Jamaica, Guyana and Mauritius; an elaborate calendar for the gradual increase of British farm prices to the much higher levels in the Common Market, and another calendar for reduction of British tariff protection against fruits and vegetables from the Continent.

AMN Board, Managers Criticized

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A legislative subcommittee investigating the financial affairs of Arkansas AM&N College at Pine Bluff Wednesday criticized both the board members and the administrators at the college.

Among the findings of the five - member committee, appointed by the Legislative Joint Auditing Committee, was that the AM&N Board of Trustees had not fulfilled its responsibilities and duties.

The legislators also said the board should review the competency, qualifications and "actual fulfillment of duties" of administrative personnel in charge of AM&N financial affairs.

A full report of the subcommittee's findings will be presented to the full committee meeting Friday at Fairfield Bay on Greers Ferry Lake.

Legislative auditors had reported several months ago that AM&N had incurred a deficit of about $1.3 million over a period of several years. The recently concluded session of the legislature appropriated $1.8 million to bail the predominantly Negro college out of its financial difficulties and carry it through this fiscal year.

The Legislative auditors have reported a shortage of more than $92,000 in cash funds at AM&N.

Six employees or former employees of AM&N, including J. A. Ramos, AM&N vice president for fiscal affairs, have been indicted by a Jefferson County Grand Jury that investigated the financial affairs at the school.

Ramos was charged under a state law prohibiting overspending of an appropriation.

The subcommittee found that one of the major causes of AM&N's financial problems was a lack of state control over the college's cash and federal funds. It recommended that the Arkansas Legislative Council consider legislation to place the money of state-supported institutions of higher learning under strict controls.

The subcommittee said the Board, which last month held its first meeting in almost eight months, had not adequately supervised and approved overall budgetary matters at AM&N.

Hits Court Ruling on Busing

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — George E. Miller, superintendent of the North Little Rock School District, said Wednesday that a recent ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court that said busing was an acceptable means of desegregation "resolved nothing."

Miller said that school districts were hoping the high court would render a decision that would clear up the busing issue. Instead, he said, the court "jumbled" its decision.

Miller, in a speech to the North Little Rock Sertoma Club, said the Supreme Court still has failed to hand down guidelines for desegregation of schools.

Aim to Block European Troop Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration supporters have moved quickly to head off Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's bid to force a 50-per-cent reduction in U.S. troop strength in Europe. Within hours after the Montana senator introduced his proposal Tuesday as an amendment to draft-extension legislation, two Republicans offered substitutes and a third said approval of Mansfield's rider would prompt President Nixon to veto the bill. There was no indication when a vote might come on the Mansfield amendment, expected to prolong what already looks like a marathon debate. Critics of the Vietnam war plan to offer the McGovern-Hatfield amendment to cut off funds for U.S. troops in Indochina after Dec. 31. Mansfield said the 300,000-man U.S. force in Europe is "inflated and musclebound" and said his measure to bar funds for more than 150,000 U.S. troops after Dec. 31 "will result in a leaner, more mobile and more efficient combat force."

The amendment was countered promptly by a substitute offered by Sen. Charles McMathias Jr., R-Md., endorsing President Nixon's declared intention "to maintain the necessary level of United States Armed forces in Europe." Shortly afterwards, Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., calling Mansfield's amendment "unduly restrictive," suggested language placing Congress on record favoring a U.S. troop reduction but leaving implementation up to the President. Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, said of the Mansfield measure: "If this passed and became a law, I think the President would have to veto it." Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Armed Services Committee and manager of the draft bill, called Mansfield's proposal "a meat-and-potatoes method" that would cause serious harm to U.S. allies in Europe. Stennis said U.S. troops, such as the 7th Fleet in the Mediterranean, are the most stabilizing influence in Europe and the Middle East, adding that "an abrupt withdrawal of half these troops ... will be a very dangerous thing to do."
